CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The college regards effective delivery of curriculum as the most vital curricular aspect. The college follows the curriculum prescribed by the University through its Boards of Studies.

In any education system the planning and implementation of curriculum is a key factor in realization of broad educational objectives. Our institute (Laxmi-Shalini Women's, Pezari) has been contributing in the process in various ways. Two of our staff members have been working as members of Board of Studies in their respective subjects and thus playing a key role in the designing of syllabus of different papers of their subjects.

Teaching Plan and Teaching Diary: Teaching plan is prepared by every faculty member at the beginning of academic year. The faculty engages extra periods and praticals as and when necessary and maintains their records.

Preparation of Academic Calendar: At the beginning of each academic year, the academic calendar is prepared at the college level incorporating curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular events in alignment with the University academic calendar.

Feedback: The college collects the feedback from the faculty, students, alumni and parents.

Time Table Preparation: Class-wise time tables also include time slots, Project, Seminars, etc. Individual faculty time tables are prepared reflecting his/her complete workload.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

At the beginning of each semester, an academic calendar is prepared by the academic coordinator based on the schedule provided by Anna University, consisting of various curricular schedule.

An academic calendar is prepared by the concerned official at the beginning of each semester in line with the University's calendar consisting of various curricular, extra and co-curricular activities. The calendar is uploaded on college website, displayed on notice boards and is communicated to students through emails. It is updated and revised with respect to any changes suggested by the university. All the classes and examinations are planned as per the calendar, thus ensuring complete adherence.

The students' academic progress is monitored regularly by adopting the strategy of continuous internal evaluation, seminars, project work, unit test and semester examinations. The review of internal assessment is taken by the Principal regularly. For the implementation of Internal Assessment Process, Examination committee is formed at the college level which monitor overall internal assessment process.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Being an affiliated college, we cannot formulate our own courses dedicated to specific issues like gender, environment and sustainability, human values etc. as such, we don't have core courses addressing the above specific issues with the focus on social relevance. Never the less, all these issues are given primary significance in a variety of courses across all the faculties.

The University of Mumbai frames the curriculum of different courses addressing current cross-cutting issues of social and national interest. The syllabus of the courses like Foundation course, Political Science, Geography, Economics, English etc. includes crosscutting issues related to respective subject knowledge.

- Professional Ethics: Our teaching faculty strives to imbibe professional/ethical values through responsible behaviour and proper guidance.
- Environment and Sustainability: Students were sensitized, to know the status of the environment, biodiversity, and exploitation of natural resources through environmental studies.
- Female feticide, violence against women, indecent portrayal of women in media, role of women in politics, and trafficking of women in Foundation Course in FY.
- Case studies in Environmental disaster and environmental degradation in Foundation course at FY.
- Gender Politics, Feminism, transparency and accountability in administration, e-governance, in political science at FY and SY BA.

A picture is worth a thousand words. Some scientific concepts and processes are better explained with the help of diagrams. The students willingly prepare the posters that describe these concepts with the help of suitable diagrams. We stick these posters in the Classroom so that these can be regularly studied by students for future references.

The teachers of our institute use online education resources, Blogs, mixed learning platforms like google classroom to effectively deliver teaching and provide enhanced learning experience to the students. The campus of this institute is WIFI enabled. You- Tube, E- mails, WhatsApp group, Zoom and Google classrooms are used as platforms to communicate, provide material and syllabus, make announcements, conduct tests, upload assignments, make presentations, address queries, mentor and share information.

Information & Communications Technology (ICT) enabled teaching procedures and advanced technology are being followed by the faculty members in class rooms. The academic calendar, lesson plan, Time table, unit test schedule, lab manuals and question banks with solutions are made available at the beginning of every semester.

4.3 - IT Infrastructure

4.3.1 - Institution frequently updates its IT facilities including Wi-Fi

Consistent with IQAC thrust on use of IT in academics and administration, we have plan the strategies for deployment, updating and maintenance of computers which also includes computer accessories, software's and networking equipment in the college and associated facilities. Accordingly, the college has appointed a technical service person on contract basis for maintenance of IT infrastructure. The purchase of new computers, upgradation as per the growing needs of the institution is accomplished through a consultant firm.

There are different digital technological facilities available in the college. The is only one classroom/Seminar Hall which has IT facilities and is updated very frequently. We do have a god speed WiFi. The Wi-Fi is also used by student/faculties. Our computers are regularly formatted. There is a plan to extend the Wi-Fi connectivity facility. Most of the official work is being done withthe help of ICT.

The college regularly maintains the IT facilities. College itself formats the computer without no fees and by the help of computer operator. Anti-virus is regularly installed in computer. All computer has anti-virus. CCTV is installed in every classroom.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The governing body, in consultation with IQAC chalks out plan of action in the beginning of each academic year towards quality enhancement, in accordance with the vision and mission of the institution. Our governance body is so reflective and the prime focus is on the vision and mission of the institute.

VISION:

"Humanity, Harmony and Integrity" To equip students with knowledge and skills in their chosen streams, inculcate values, identify hidden talents, and provide opportunities to realize their full potential to shape them into future leaders and above all good human beings.

MISSION:

To spread quality higher education among the students of rural hilly, socio-economically weaker sections of the society with emphasis on women education.

GOAL & OBJECTIVES:

The college has been working with objectives such as: To provide facilities for higher education to students from the rural hilly region who are from economically, socially weaker sections of society. To spread higher education among the women in Alibag Taluka and surrounding areas. To create social awareness and national integrity among students through higher education and to create the feeling that 'humanity' is the real religion. To develop the overall personality of students through various activities with special emphasis on character development.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The governing body has given powers to the principal to take decision in Academic and Co-curricular activities. The governing body meets at regular intervals and monitors the activities of the institute. The College promotes participative management. Ideas pertaining to academic goals, organizational progression and better campus life are collected from all stakeholders to promote efficient functioning of the College. The staff and other stakeholders help in infusing a positive attitude that leads to increased efficiency, improved communication, heightened morale, motivation and job satisfaction. Believing in decentralization, the Management takes policy decisions, finance, infrastructure etc.

Objectives:

To bring together contributions from all traditional and nontraditional fields of humanities, social science, commerce, science and technology. To advance human self-understanding and communication. To Forster multicultural and international conversation concerning the human issues.

Strategy:

Since it was a gigantic activity including disciplinary, multidisciplinary and post disciplinary fraternity, following strategy was unanimously decided

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The Principal of our Institute believes in delegation of authority and decentralization. Accordingly, the governing system of the institution prefers decision making in democratic, participative and decentralized manner. The college has been always in favour of participation of faculty, administrative and non-teaching staff and the representative from students, alumni, industry, local society, in general administration of college.

In any institution of higher education, conduct of examinations enjoys a crucial place in the functioning of higher education. The work demands utmost accuracy of planning and dogged perseverance. The scope of the work is so huge and laborious that only wellcoordinated team work can deliver results.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

At our college, the appraisal of the staff is carried out every year according to the UGC notifications and the guidelines given by Govt. of Maharashtra and the rules laid down by the parent University, the University of Mumbai. For teachers the Performance Based Appraisal System (PBAS) based on Academic Performance Indicator (API) form as designed by the University on the basis of guidelines of UGC is used while for the non- teaching employees, the form given by State Government is used.

Performance appraisal is a procedure through which organizations seek to assess employees and develop their competence, improve performance, and allocate rewards. Performance appraisal, performance review, performance evaluation, performance assessment,performance measurement, employee evaluation, personnel review, staff assessment, service rating, etc.are some of the procedures adopted for the appraisal. It also serves the ethical purpose to bring the education to a higher level of performance. Their success significantly relies upon superior faculty, administrators, and staff.

For non-teaching staff a form given by Government department is used for the annual appraisal. Confidential appraisal report is used for the promotion of non-teaching staff members, It consists of selfappraisal and the assessment of the working of staff by the higher authority. these appraisal reports are useful for the promotions of non-teaching staff from Junior clerk to Senior clerk, Registrar.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

The Institution has established a mechanism for conducting internal and external audits on the financial transactions every year to ensure financial compliance. Internal audit is conducted half yearly by the internal financial committee of the institution. The committee thoroughly verifies the income and expenditure details andthe compliance report of internal audit is submitted to the management of the institution through principal. External audit is conducted once in every year by an external agency. The mechanisms used to monitor effective and efficient use of financial resources are as below:

- College budget includes recurring expenses such as salary,

- electricity, internet charges, maintenance cost, stationery, other consumable charges etc., and non – recurring expenses like lab equipment purchases, furniture and other development expenses.
- The expenses will be monitored by the accounts department as per the budget allocated by the management.
- Before the commencement of every financial year, principal submits a proposal on budget allocation, by considering the recommendations made by the heads of all the departments, to the management.
- The depreciation costs of various things purchased in the preceding years are also worked out.

Financial audits are important for the transparency and accountability of an institution of Higher Education. Meticulous and systematic book-keeping and their inspection and authentication by a certified Chartered Accountant are not just a legal obligation, but also an ethical responsibility.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

IQAC is one of the major policy making and implementing unit in our college. It strives hard for upgrading the college infrastructure and all support facilities to meet the standards of higher education and growing need of students. It assesses and suggests the parameters of quality education.

The IQAC is supposed to be nodal agency for planning and for monitoring execution of various plans for quality assurance in curricular, co-curricular, administrative and infrastructural aspects of college. A college is a cradle for building a democratic society and democracy abhors autocratic style of functioning.Shestands for rule-bound and institutionalized functioning in a spirit of freedom and initiative. The IQAC in our college works hand in hand with the management to improve upon the weaknesses and to sustain strengths.

University has always been at the forefront of sensitizing students to the cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, and socio-economic diversities of the state and the nation. The University celebrates cultural and regional festivals like Youth Festival, Constitution Day, etc. to teach tolerance and harmony to the students. The Gender Equality Policy focuses on equal access, opportunities, and rights for women and men. Policy for the Differently abled ensures that every single member of the department is aware of the care to be shown to the differently abled people. By providing a barrier-free environment, needed facilities, and human and technological assistance, the department takes continuous efforts to make the differently-abled feel included in every part of the activity of the college. The department has revised the curriculum with the inclusion of topics related to human rights, peace, tolerance, love, compassion, harmony, promotion of social values, awareness of environmental protection, and ethics.

The institute is proactively taking efforts in providing an inclusive environment. The initiatives are to promote better education, economic upliftment of the needy, and set communal harmony. Institute has conducted lectures in the villages for increasing their environmental and ethical awareness. Institute hasalso tested the quality of drinking water available in these villages. 7.1.11 - Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals

Republic day The institution celebrates Republic day on 26thJanuary every year, commemorating the adoption of Indian constitution and spreading the message that India is the largest democratic country in the world. This is a day to remind the students about the constitution of the country and the need to abide by it at all times. The celebration includes the hoisting of national flag and spreading a warm message of nationalism in a speech by the Principal.

Independence Day is celebrated every year on 15th of August, parades and flag hoisting is organized and is celebrated to mark freedom of India from British rule. The institution encourages students to remember our national leaders and their sacrifices.

Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated every year on 2ndOctober to understand the ideology of our great leader Mahatma Gandhi wherein pledge is taken by students and staff. In today's times we inspire students of our institution to follow the Gandhian ideologies of truth and nonviolence and inspire them to contribute towards the peace andprosperity of the Nation.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

In line with its vision of working towards the socio-economic development of the country, the Laxmi-Shalini has taken utmost care to give back to the community. Several student committees are formed to carry out the duties towards society. The one-week long intense induction program gives the freshmen an insight into the institute's values and vision. Along with other sports cultural and technical activities, the NSS unit plans activities like tree plantation andfield visits to expose the students to the pressing issues in our society.

We believe that college life is not all about academics, games, friends, and fun. It is also about learning to interact with other people, being aware of social, environmental and gender issues, and inequities in the society. We provide an opportunity to every student to contribute to make the society in which they live a better place and to grow as better individuals. The Laxmi-Shalini Graduate School has committed itself to the task of inculcating social values and responsibilities in its students.
